7 VESSELS IN DISTRESS AS HEAVY WINDSTORM HITS ATLANTIC COAST

Lives of More Than 150 Seamen Endangered as Ocean, Whipped Into Fury by Terrific Winds, Pounds Ships

New York, March 8.—(U.P.)—Coast guard craft and the White Star liner Adriatic stood by the disabled freighter H. F. De Bardeleben in distress on the Atlantic today, one of seven vessels battered by pounding waves swept before a furious windstorm.

Radio messages today from the steamer Adriatic said she was standing by as the crew of the distressed freighter expected to abandon her as soon as feasible.

150 Lives Endangered
Other ships reported endangered were:

The San Angelo, 90 miles northeast of Cape Henry.

Norwalk, Richmond bound from New York.

Tug Mos, missing out of Norfolk, Va.

Schooner Nomis, waterlogged out of Jacksonville.

Collier Isaac T. Mann, disabled near Hog Island, Va.

Dixie Arrow, being towed to port from point off Virginia coast.

Lives of more than 150 seamen were believed endangered by the storm which had left several of these vessels helpless. Several other vessels, first reported in danger, were reported safe during the night.

The De Bardeleben was reported disabled 110 miles southeast of Nantucket, Mass., last night. The Adriatic, Ocracoke Island Coast Guard Station, N. C., March 8.—(U.P.)—Extent of destruction of the storm that has raged off Cape Hatteras became known for the first time today.

Houses have been washed from their foundations by high seas and numerous boats torn from their moorings and piled on shore. A preliminary property loss of $200,000 was estimated.

More than a score of houses at Chicamacomico coast guard station and at Avon, N. C., were lifted from their foundations and wrecked.

Several boats have disappeared.

The Origin Inlet picket boat, anchored in the inlet, was unable to reach shore during the storm, it was reported, and members of the crew were forced to spend the night afloat.

bound for New York, answered the freighter's distress signals. Coast guard destroyers Cuyahoga and George E. Badger, out of Boston, also were sent to the scene.

Coast guard headquarters at Boston announced that Captain C. T. Knight, of the DeBardeleben, had requested the Adriatic to stand by until attempt is made to transfer the crippled steamer's crew which numbers 34.

Carried No Cargo

According to a message to the W. G. Coyle company, of New Orleans, owners of the disabled freighter, the tanker Hapgood and three coast guard cutters from New London, Conn., are within a half mile of the vessel. The cutter Ossipee also left its Portland, Me., base to aid the De Bardeleben.

The ship was without a cargo when caught in almost the center of the storm which has been sweeping the Atlantic coast for two days.

Two coast guard boats were rushing to the rescue of the steamer San Angelo, 90 miles northeast of Cape Henry. It sent out a distress call reporting fire in her hold last night. The blaze later was reported under control.

Anxiety was felt for the missing steamer Norwalk bound from New York to Richmond, Va., with a crew of 22 men. She last was sighted Saturday at the peak of the storm off Delaware breakwater.

The ocean-going tug Mars, with a crew of 18 men, left Norfolk, Va., Saturday for Deepwater, N. J., with a barge in tow.

The coast guard also reported the waterlogged schooner Nomis 12 miles off Frying Pan Shoals lighthouse in North Carolina was kept afloat by its cargo of lumber.

The collier Isaac T. Mann was reported disabled after running out of coal after a battle with heavy seas.

Government Dredge Crew Safe

The government dredge Kinkham, reported missing in the storm, was found off Frying Pan Shoals. Her crew of 50 was reported safe.

The yawl Thelma asked the passing steamer Ulysses to notify its home port, Wilmington, Del., that it needed no assistance.

UNSETTLED SKIES, CONTINUED COLD IS FORECAST FOR AREA

SUB-ZERO TEMPERATURES MODERATE SLIGHTLY IN STATE; FRUIT SUFFERS IN SOUTH

Winter loosened its frigid grip on Minnesota and the northwest reluctantly today as the United States weather bureau predicted continued cold weather and unsettled skies for tonight and tomorrow.

Sub-zero temperatures had moderated somewhat in Minnesota and the Dakotas but with the center of the high pressure area which brought the cold wave to the United States still over Canada, the weather bureau could see no immediate relief.

Temperatures which were down to the 20 degree below zero point over the Dakotas yesterday, today had climbed to a range between zero and 10 below. It was one degree below at St. Paul, six below at Moorhead and 10 below at Duluth in Minnesota.

Calgary, Alta., was one of the coldest points on the weather map with 20 degrees below zero and a barometer reading of 31 inches, indicating that the high pressure area was still in western Canada.

Near zero temperatures prevailed throughout the central states. The cold spread southwest through Oklahoma, Kansas and even into Texas. Livestock and fruit crops suffered.

GIRL INCITES RIOT AT FORD PLANT; 4 KILLED, 22 INJURED

GIRL, WHOSE SWEETHEART DIED IN HER ARMS, IN FIGHTING MOOD FACING ACCUSERS

Detroit, Mich., March 8.—(U.P.)—Rioting of unemployed at the Ford plant in which four men were killed and 22 were hurt, resulted today in mobilization of the national guard and arrest of 15 alleged mob leaders, including the defiant girl, who shouted:

"Come on, you cowards."

The grim-faced girl, Mary Gossman, her shabby blue dress still stained with the blood of her slain sweetheart who died in her arms, was in a fighting mood as she faced her police accusers today.

"Yes, I was there. I'm not sorry. I did it for starving millions. Blame capitalism which is the cause of all suffering. Now don't talk to me," the tearless woman shouted.

Police charge the rioting of the 3,000 jobless men and women at the River Rouge plant yesterday was planned by communists. Sticks, stones, tear gas and bullets were used by police and rioters before the disturbance was quelled.

The Ford organization disclaimed all blame for the riot. An official statement from the company said:

"The Ford company has employed more men, more continuously and at higher wages than any other industrial plant or aggregation of plants of the same size in the Detroit area."

40 MILLION BU. WHEAT AVAILABLE TO JOBLESS

Washington, Mar. 8.—(U.P.)—Forty million bushels of wheat lay in warehouses today awaiting technical arrangements to be ground into flour for the unemployed.

President Hoover late yesterday signed a bill to turn over that amount of government-owned wheat to the Red Cross for distribution. Prior to signing he conferred briefly with Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, Chairman Stone of the farm board and Chairman Payne of the Red Cross. It was understood the bill would be referred to the department of justice for an opinion before actual distribution started.

Payne told reporters the cost of distribution, milling, etc., would be paid for "out of the wheat." It has been understood, however, that large millers have volunteered to grind the wheat into flour without charge.

Fighting Resumed, China Blasts Hopes For Truce

Shanghai, March 8.—(U.P.)—Wearied armies battled along a wide front in the Yangtze valley today as China brushed aside world-wide peace overtures and recalled from exile her greatest military leader, Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek, to direct the defense against invading Japanese.

Chinese government leaders, meeting Japanese, charges that defending armies were responsible for the renewed hostilities, flatly announced their refusal to attend the long-awaited peace conference unless Japanese troops are withdrawn.

At the same time, the central executive meeting at the temporary capital of Loyang announced that Gen. Chiang had been appointed chairman of the military council, a post tantamount to command of the nation's armies.

The Sino-Japanese clash in the Yangtze valley, which sprang up shortly after commanders on both sides had announced cessation of hostilities, apparently encouraged the government to a new assertion of national entity.

Chian Tso-Ping, former minister to Tokyo and now chairman of the foreign affairs committee at Loyang, issued the statement that Chinese will remain away from the round-table conference until Japanese troops leave Shanghai.

"The government stand on the Shanghai question is guided by the basic principle that China will not yield to coercion, nor will it suffer humiliation and the loss of sovereign rights," Chiang said.

"Questions regarding responsibility for the Shanghai incident, as well as indemnity for the loss of lives and property, must be discussed and settled with absolute impartiality."

Gen. Chiang, whose position has been in doubt since he resigned several months ago as head of the government, won his appointment last with Ku Meng-Yu, prominent leftist, as minister of railways.

At the scene of battle outside Shanghai, the Japanese commander, Gen. Yoshinori Shirakawa issued a statement that Chinese troops are concentrating near Japanese lines in the direction of Quinsan.

London, March 8.—(U.P.)—An exchange telegraph dispatch from Shanghai said today the Japanese commander had issued an ultimatum to the Chinese to withdraw another five miles or be attacked.

IDENTIFY BODIES OF MURDERED PAIR AS EX-DULUTH WOMEN

St. Paul, Minn., March 8.—(U.P.)—Chief of Police Tom Brown today announced that he had identified the bodies of two women found slain near Turtle Lake, Wis., as former residents of Duluth.

One of the women was known as Margaret Perry, Brown said. She was described as from 35 to 40 years old, a half breed Chippewa Indian, and recently released from St. Louis county jail after serving a six months' sentence on a robbery charge.

The Perry woman, Brown said, was formerly the wife of "Denver Bobby" Walker, wanted in connection with the Denver mint robbery. The other woman was described as a recent arrival in Duluth who said that she had formerly lived in New York and Hamilton, O.

The Perry woman was recently forced to leave Orr, Minn.

Extortion attempts upon a Minnesota robbery gang by two women underworld characters were believed today to have led to their deaths, Polk county authorities said.

County officials theorized that the women attempted to "shake down" members of the Cambridge robbery gang by threats of exposure while in the Twin Cities.

They were apparently on their way back to Duluth when killed. It was believed that the women were followed by gang members and murdered.

The automobile was identified as one stolen last January from Cambridge, Minn., when six men looted the town, kidnapped the town marshal and took the car.

Park's verdict was that the women "came to their deaths between 9:30 and 10 p. m. Saturday from gunshot wounds inflicted by persons unknown."

ATTEMPT TO AMEND BILL BY LEGALIZING AND TAXING BEER

SUGGEST SUBSTITUTING AMENDMENT FOR SEVERAL OTHER TAXES PROPOSED

Washington, March 8.—(U.P.)—An attempt to amend the new revenue bill by legalizing and taxing beer, and substituting this tax for several proposed in the measure, was announced formally today by three members of the ways and means committee which drafted the bill.

See Many Amendments
A $5 a barrel tax, which they said would bring in $350,000,000 annually, was proposed by Representatives Sullivan and Cullen, New York, and McCormack, Boston, all democrats, in a supplementary statement today on the new $1,096,000,000 revenue measure.

The new $1,096,000,000 revenue bill, only a day old, was attacked today by various house groups. Opposition centered chiefly on the $595,000,000 manufactures sale tax, prohibition features, and the oil tariff provision.

Criticism, however, was scattered, and Democratic Floor Leader Rainey predicted passage by the house without amendment. Others are not so firm in the belief all amendments will be defeated, but it is agreed the measure will not be materially different when it leaves the house about two weeks hence for another battle in the senate. The house will begin to consider the bill Thursday.

Defend Measure

ican coalition backing the tax bill defend the sweeping measure with the assertion the budget must be balanced to protect the government's solvency and thus restore confidence and normal conditions. The bill, they say, is the only way to do it.

Ridicule Malt Tax

In addition to an onslaught against the 42 cents a barrel tax on imported oil and gasoline, there will be a spectacular attempt by anti-prohibitionists, doomed to defeat, to legalize beer and levy a $5 a barrel tax on it.

Anti-prohibitionists ridicule the tax on malt, wort and grape concentrate, ingredients of the "home brew" industry, saying it is recognition of an illegal industry and puts congress in the position of condoning violations of the law.

RAID JESSE JAMES' HOME TOWN; FAIL TO PIERCE BANK VAULT

Kearney, Mo., March 8.—(U.P.)—Bank bandits today raided Kearney, once the home town of Jesse James, wounded a citizen in a gun battle and fed after an unsuccessful attempt to break into the vault of the Kearney Trust company.

Ernest Barr, 40, a former service man, was shot twice and dangerously wounded in an exchange with the bandits in front of the bank.

Joe Thompson, night watchman of Kearney, was seized and held prisoner for three hours. He was not injured by the bandits, but was suffering from cold and exposure when released.

Council Orders Bids For Prisoners Meals

Economy has hit the feeding of prisoners in the city jail.

To cut down on the food expense at the city jail the city council last night voted to advertise for bids for the feeding of prisoners.

Prisoners in the city jail are receiving food at the present time at an expense of 30 cents a meal to the city.

YOUTH SOUGHT IN MINNEAPOLIS AS SENDER LINDBERGH TELEGRAM

Gangsters Named to Contact Kidnapers

IRVING BITZ

Salvatore Spitalo, New York racketeer, and his chief lieutenant, Irving Bitz, were authorized by Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh to represent them in negotiations with the kidnapers of the Lindbergh baby. No explanation for their appointment was given.

SALVATORE SPITALO

2 KILLED, 3 INJURED AS CRASH ENDS NIGHT PRACTICE FLIGHT

East St. Louis, Ill., March 8.—(U.P.)—A tri-motored Stinson monoplane of the Century Airlines, carrying five pilots on a practice night flight, crashed near Curtiss Steinberg airport before dawn, killing two and injuring three of the occupants.

Details of the crash were withheld until the airline, which has figured in a pilots' strike, had removed all wreckage to a hangar.

The dead:

L. A. Atkinson, 35, Chicago.

James Kirk, 35, Chicago.

The injured:

Sydney Cleveland, 29, Goldfield, Ia.

Ira Smalling, Chicago; Theodore Graff, Smalling, Kirk and Cleveland were new employees of the airline, hired after the recent strike depleted the staff of licensed pilots.

The local office of the company said that a Century Airlines official was flying from Chicago, and on his arrival full details of the crash would be given out.

The crackup occurred 150 feet off the landing field, a few hours before dawn.

The wreckage of the craft, a Stinson cabin monoplane, was removed from the scene of the accident before word of the crackup was given out.

UPSALA BANDITS TO SERVE LIFE TERMS

Harold Cook, Grand Rapids, and Arthur Shaffer, Little Falls, today began life terms in the state penitentiary after they pleaded guilty at Little Falls district court to charges of first degree bank robbery.

Cook and Shaffer signed confessions yesterday admitting that they joined Elmer Simons who recently committed suicide at Indiana Harbor, Ind., in holding up the Upsala State bank at Upsala.

Although posses of deputies from neighboring towns patrolled the roads surrounding Upsala immediately after the holdup, the three men drove unchallenged to Grand Rapids by county roads.

Lincoln, Neb., Mar. 8.—(U.P.)—Twenty-four children, twelve of them babies were rescued today from a burning nursery building at the state home for Mrs. Alice G. While, nurse on duty, discovered the fire after it had dependent children.

Mrs. While took a baby under each arm and carried them two at a time out of the burning building. Firemen rescued the twelve older children. The fire started from an overheated furnace pipe.

WIRE SAYING "BABY DOING FAIR" PHONED FROM OIL STATION

STATION ATTENDANT SAYS TRIO PHONED MESSAGE WHILE THEY HELD HIM CAPTIVE

Minneapolis, Minn., March 8.—(U.P.)—United States secret service agents today sought a "suspicious acting" youth driving an automobile with a New Jersey license for a possible clue to finding the 20-month-old son of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

Phone Message from Station

Following shortly on the report of Jesse C. Vincent, Minneapolis filling station attendant, that two men and a woman held him up last night to telephone a telegram to the local Postal office for Col. Lindbergh, the secret service operatives learned that a New Jersey car stopped in a St. Paul speedometer service company for repairs.

John Goff, employee for the speedometer concern, said the driver of the green Pontiac told him he was "all in" and had not had any sleep for a week.

Goff said that while the car was being repaired, the driver paced back and forth in the shop and then walked up and down the street. Goff notified the secret service operatives as soon as he could, he said.

The telegram follows:

"Take Salvy out of New York, deal with Chicago direct. Baby fair, doing good."

Detective Captain James Mullen, who conducted the investigation, did not express an opinion on whether the telegram was a hoax or not.

The trio telephoned the wire to a telephone office while they kept the oil station attendants in a closet, it was reported to police.

Authorities did not hope to obtain any definite help from the telegram and its sending, however. It was pointed out that the trio could have sent the same message from a private phone booth with greater safety and that the use of a pistol in keeping Jensen confined in a closet was unnecessary and evidently a gesture to attract attention.

Descriptions of the youth and those of the younger of the two men who sent the telegram to Lindbergh were similar, operatives said. The automobile also answered closely the description of the car used by the senders of the telegram.

Goff obtained the license number of the car but Vincent was unable to see the numbers on the car of his assailants.

Lindbergh Directs Search

Hopewell, N. J., March 8.—(U.P.)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh took over today almost singlehanded the task of getting back his kidnapped son, Charles A., Jr.

New Jersey police, while still endeavoring to solve the mystery and ready to aid the kidnapers in restoring the child to the colonel and his suffering wife, Anne Morrow Lindbergh, were virtually superceded by the youthful flier and his immediate associates, Col. Henry Breckinridge, his mother-in-law, Mrs. Dwight Morrow, and Mrs. Lindbergh.

"Notes" are being received. But they are from people either desirous of being helpful, or from cranks and "chislers."

New Points Established

The contact of Col. Lindbergh with the underworld through Salvatore Spitalo and the latter's guardsman, Irving Bitz, is being closely kept. But Spitalo advised the United Press today that his position as "listening post" in gangland had not yet proved successful.

The police press conference today clarified some points that have caused much speculation.

This developed:

1.—That the baby could have been taken out through a regular exit in the house without disturbing the Lindberghs or their dog, who were downstairs.

2.—The investigation as to members of the household is still open.

Much speculation has been created by the suggestion that a kidnaper carrying a baby could not have negotiated the journey down the improvised ladder, especially in the position in which the ladder was found, that is, alongside the nursery window.

Yet another point, not hitherto entirely clear, was developed by the press conference, when it was said that Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh were on the ground floor when Miss Betty Gow, the nursemaid told them of her startling discovery that the baby was missing.

Thoughts for Lent

"Fear Not Little Flock"

(Read Luke 12:22-32.)

The men to whom Jesus said this, had nothing to depend on but faith and hope. Yet, for them, faith and hope were quite enough on which to build a kingdom. They trusted God to work through them, because they trusted themselves to keep faith with God. Such optimism rests upon a rock. God has given His kingdom to those who have staked their lives on Him. If our religion is radiantly active, we will keep our poise even though man's new Babel crumbles—knowing that the kingdom of Spirit belongs to those who are in the world but not of it.

Prayer: O God, Thou Father of us all, grant, we beseech Thee, such confidence in Thy over-ruling Providence that throughout all change and in the midst of every distraction, we may preserve a calm and steadfast mind. May we not succumb to the influence of widespread confusion. Help us to possess our souls in patience, trusting that Thou in Thy good time will give us the kingdom which Thou hast promised, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GAS-ELECTRIC CAR FROM CITY DAMAGED IN FALLS COLLISION

TWO IN SEDAN INJURED AS AUTO COLLIDES WITH NORTHERN PACIFIC CARRIER

A collision between a large sedan and the Northern Pacific gas-electric car at the First street, northeast, crossing at Little Falls last evening put both cars out of commission and shook up occupants of the sedan.

Those hurt were John Corrigan, Little Falls, and B. J. Johnson, Minneapolis, salesman, driver of the auto. They were enroute to Brainerd at 7 p. m. when their car rammed into the railroad car, coming in from Brainerd, ripping off its batteries and throwing them along the right of way.

Deprived of power and light, Engineer W. H. Plankers of Minneapolis reached for the hand brake in the darkened cab and brought the car to a halt at the end of the bridge, more than a block away. The car was hauled back to Brainerd on the return run by the locomotive of the way freight which arrived about that time from Morris.

Engineer Plankers said he did not see the sedan until he had reached the crossing. The occupants of the auto, said they did not notice the gas car until a second before the crash. Johnson evidently veered to the left, and the right side on which Corrigan was seated, took the force of the blow. Glass was shattered and the radiator stove in. Corrigan suffered slight cuts about the head and a wrenched back. He was taken back to his hotel and a Northern Pacific physician was called. Johnson was shaken and bruised slightly.

FORMER BRAINERD RESIDENT STRICKEN

TREES, KEYNOTE OF HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL LUNCH MEET HERE

The March meeting of the Brainerd Musical Club on Saturday was a combination of luncheon, talks and concert. The lunch was served at the Presbyterian church by the ladies of the church; and was in charge of Mrs. E. J. Quinn who had attended to all the arduous details incident to such an affair, and who presided most graciously.

The purpose of the meeting was to further the celebrations in honor of this Bi-Centennial year, and to tell what various individuals and organizations were doing to pay honor to the "Father of Our Country." The center theme was the idea of the planting of trees to carry on the memory of Washington, and for this purpose Mrs. Quinn had invited various members from town and country to talk briefly on what suggestions they could give. The keynote was given in Mrs. Krekelberg's beautiful interpretation of Joyce Kilmer's "Trees." As there were so many speakers, their main ideas only can be given.

Speakers Talk Tree Cause
These were the speakers and their main thoughts:

County Agent E. G. Roth—1. Plant local trees for shade and beauty. 2. Organize a pool to buy fruit trees. Mayor Harry Creger—Through cooperative efforts plant trees about public buildings.

Mrs. J. Herbert—1. Plant a tree for every corner with three in between. 2. Plant some clover at the base in honor of the fifteenth centennial of St. Patrick.

E. H. Rhodes, district forest ranger—1. More spruce and pine trees in the parks to replace the quick growing and shorter lived trees already there. 2. More Elms. 3. Better shade trees at Lum Park to replace the Jacks. 4. Landscape the forty acres around strip along the highway and so ap the new Water and Light plant. 5. Co-operate with the farmers to plant a grove the beauty of the roadways of France. 6. Transplant local trees or pool interest to buy nursery trees by the hundred or thousand at a price within the reach of everyone.

Rural Units Assist
Mrs. Anton Claus spoke of the work being done by the rural units to beautify their lawns and of the kindness of town and rural men in giving of bulbs and trees and shrubs.

Mrs. M. A. Bronson—1. Four trees already planted in Gregory Park in honor of Washington and registered with the Bi-Centennial commission. 2. Plant trees in memory of the war heroes as well as of Washington. 3. Quoted: "If the nation cares for the trees, the trees will save the nation."

Eugene Cashman—1. Hoover planted the first elm in the White House grounds in honor of Washington on April 21, 1931. 2. 10,000 are expected by Thanksgiving. 3. Planting of trees a patriotic service to prevent erosion and timber shortage. 4. Trees are economic and spiritual force.

As the tree roots its self in the ground and spreads its branches to the sky, adding beauty as well as wealth to the nation, so the spirit of Washington lives through the centuries, steadfast, enduring, more beautiful and inspiring than any statues in marble.

R. T. Campbell, president of the Washington P. T. A.—1. Arbor Day started in 1872 by J. Sterling Morton. 2. This new movement is an excellent opportunity to carry on the idea to beautify homes and schools. 3. Quoted the work done on the Whittier grounds and the start at the new high school.

Bert Sabin—1. Plums easily raised here. 2. Cherries and apples difficult to raise. 3. Conservation of trees a necessity for the future.

Mrs. John Gibson—1. Never despair: if trees die, replace them at once by others.

Mrs. Quinn spoke of the national organization for the planting of trees started in the Coolidge administration. Since George Washington had always a great fondness for trees, it was thought that this would be a most fitting memorial in this Bi-Centennial year.

She urged that anyone who could offer any sort of work should report to Mrs. Elder at the city hall.

The concert at the high school was a thing of beauty and delight, for Miss Lorna Jackson has that dark beauty and southern charm that expresses itself so well in a gown of flaming red and memories of Carmen and other Spanish ladies enshrined in song and story. She gave four groups and ran the gamut of musical emotion from the subdued and calm tempo of "Quiet" to the exotic emotion of the Carmen spurned by her lover in the "Habanera" from "Carmen." There is no need to go into great detail, for all the numbers were most thoroughly enjoyed. Miss Jackson enunciates and interprets all songs to the delight of the audience, she gives so well the delicate shades of emotion and portrays so clearly the feelings of the characters in the varied songs that one does not know which selection to raise the most, whether it be a song like "Zingarella" or "Carmen" in which she gives all the life and verve of the original along with a thorough mastery of the art of prolonged high notes and sustained emotion, or a sympathetic interpretation of such a charming thing as "Seven Old Ladies Sit for Tea."

Miss Jackson responded to the enthusiastic plaudits of the audience with several light and laughable encores—as the "Love Affairs of the Owl," and found a storm "Too Wet, Too Wet, to Woo," "April Fool," "Spring Housecleaning," and "The Lesson With the Fan," in which she was a delight to the eye in the Spanish red of her gown, shawl, red fan and flaming red of her head-dress.

Altogether the program was thoroughly enjoyed.

The piano background, so important to give the proper keynote of beauty and mood to the voice, was, as always, well given by Miss Bertha Hag-

COUNCIL VOTES CHAMBER COMMERCE USE ROOMS IN CITY HALL FOR NEW QUARTERS

Permission to use the council chambers as a meeting place and the mayor's office as a secretary's office was granted the Chamber of Commerce last night by the city council on request of F. N. Russell, president of the Chamber.

Adoption of the rooms as the new Chamber of Commerce headquarters rests now with the endorsement of the plan by the Chamber of Commerce members at its Wednesday night meeting.

The removal to new quarters will effect a saving of $1025 a year in rental alone, Russell stated, explaining that this money can henceforth be devoted to public good and the advancement of work by the Chamber of Commerce.

Use of the rooms were granted without thought of rental remuneration. Mayor Harry Creger gave his full consent to the use of his office for the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Russell stated that if removal is approved the Chamber will equip the council rooms with additional chairs and furniture, making the meeting place more attractive and comfortable. He promised that the money heretofore paid out for rent would be utilized to the welfare of local agencies.

Russell explained that heretofore the Chamber had been depleted of funds after payment of rental fees, leaving no funds for expansion work. He informed the council that a recent poll taken or members favored a change of quarters from the present location.

COMMITTEE ORGANIZED TO HANDLE CROP PRODUCTION LOANS TO COUNTY FARMERS

Farmers of Crow Wing county who must borrow money for seed or other crop production purposes for 1932 may apply for federal crop production loans to be made by the Secretary of Agriculture under the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act of Congress approved January 22. All loans to local farmers will be made through the County Advisory Loan Committee, which has just been appointed by the county commissioners with Fritz Hagberg, county auditor as chairman. Other members are Elmer Olson, cashier, Citizens State bank and Earl L. Richardson, Brainerd, Route No. 1, president of the Crow Wing county farm bureau, and E. G. Roth, county agent.

Farmers wishing to apply for loans must secure official application blanks which will be available at the following points in the county: any bank in the county, from any one of the committee or from County Agent Roth's office. These blanks must be filled out completely in triplicate, and submitted to the county loan committee, together with a promissory note, fully executed for the amount of the loan, payable on or before November 30, 1932, with interest at 5 1/2 per cent, and with a first mortgage on the crop as security. Loans will be granted only when the applicant complies with all the regulations and has the approval of the county loan committee and the Secretary of Agriculture.

Following are the principal regulations governing the crop production loans:

1. In general, loans are available to any farmer having acreage fit for seeding, but who is without means to purchase the supplies necessary for crop production during 1932.

2. No loan will be made to a minor, nor to an applicant having a means of livelihood other than farming, nor to anyone who did not operate a farm in 1931. No loans will be made for summer following, nor for a total acreage of crops in excess of the average of the acreage planted by the borrower in 1930 and 1931. Loans will not be made for the purchase of machinery, or livestock, or for the feeding of livestock other than work stock used in crop production, or for the payment of taxes, debts or interest on debts.

3. No loan to any applicant may exceed $400, nor may the total of loans to tenants of any one land owner in a single county exceed $1,600. In counties where fertilizer is not commonly used, loans will be based on the approximate cost of supplies required, but shall not exceed $3 per acre, except for truck crops, including potatoes, for which loans may not exceed $12 per acre. Loans for fertilizer will be granted only in counties where its use is deemed necessary by the county loan committee. In such counties loans will be based on the approximate cost of all needed crop production supplies, including fertilizer, but may not exceed $6 per acre, except for tobacco and truck crops, including potatoes, on which the maximum shall be $20 per acre. Not more than $1 per acre of loans may be used for repairs and miscellaneous expenses of crop production, other than seed, fertilizer, feed for work stock, and fuel and oil for tractors.

4. The right is reserved to make loans at rates lower than those quoted above. Applicants must agree to use seed and methods approved by the Department of Agriculture through the county loan advisory committee or county agent.

2. Applicants must agree to plant a garden for home use and a sufficient acreage of feed crops to supply feed for livestock.

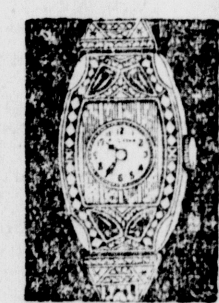

Any person knowingly making any material false representation for the purpose of obtaining a loan may be punished by fine not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment not exceeding 6 months, or both.

Further information about eligibility for loans, amounts obtainable and regulations can be had by anyone interested, from members of the County Advisory Committee or the county agent.

No, Al says my pie crust gives him indigestion.

Why Janet, are you using a cheap shortening? Why don't you change to Crisco?

I think I will try Crisco. It's a digestible fat.

(NEXT EVENING)

Darling, this banana pie tastes wonderful—none of that strong taste that disagrees with me.

I've changed to Crisco. I knew a sweet-tasting fat would be better for you.

THE SALES TAX—

If Congress adopts a sales tax, as it seems about to do, in preference to voting stiffer rates for wealthy income tax payers, it may gain a lot of favor with important contributors to campaign chests, but it is hard to see how it will win the abiding affection of the man in the street.

The man in the street, these days, is often quite literally in the street, looking for a job or a free meal. Higher income taxes don't worry him; a sales tax, however, would affect him directly and painfully, even though staple foods are exempted.

However, it is not customary, in times of depression, for the statesmen at Washington to worry greatly over the plight of the little fellow. The sales tax will probably go through, thereby making it unnecessary to wallop the higher income tax brackets so very heavily; and the big income tax payers, beyond doubt, will be delighted—and grateful.

USEFUL SENATOR NORRIS—

Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska has in this session of Congress once more demonstrated that he is one of the most enlightened and useful men in American public life today.

First, after many years of struggle, he saw his famous lame duck amendment win a victory. State legislatures presently will be called on to ratify this measure which will make the federal government more responsive to the will of the people.

Secondly, it is becoming evident that he is about to win his anti-injunction fight. If his bill passes, "yellow dog" contracts will no longer be upheld by Uncle Sam's courts, and federal judges will no longer be sacrosanct despots in labor controversies.

The author of these two measures has done his country a great service.

DOLLARS AND LIVES—

There is no sense whatever in getting vexed with the authorities of the National Zoo because they called inexpensive specialists and apparatus to save the life of their baby gorilla when it got pneumonia.

The gorilla was a valuable bit of property, and it was their duty to preserve it. There may have been something extremely vexing in the sight of this ape getting all kinds of high-priced attention at a time when thousands upon thousands of American children aren't even getting enough to eat, but that isn't the fault of the people who run the zoo.

The fault, as a matter of fact, lies with all of us. That, indeed, is true of nearly all of the troubles that are making current times so unpleasant; and while the idea is not an easy one to swallow, we shan't move ahead very rapidly until we have made ourselves gulp it down.

This gorilla, you see, got better medical attention than lots of American children will ever get when pneumonia comes their way, simply because we have the kind of society which occasionally will put a higher value on the life of a prize ape in a cage than on a human life.

A prize ape costs money. The cost of a human life isn't readily measured by present-day standards. Much pain, much sacrifice, infinite hopes and heart-breaking longing go to the purchase of it, but such things have no dollars-and-cents value; and somehow we find it hard to appraise things by any other measuring rod.

We all share the blame. We have put up with this kind of society for a long time, now; when times were good a lot of us thought that it was the finest society on earth. Only now, when times are far from good, are we beginning to wonder about it.

All this, of course, is just another way of saying that we have been content to put material values ahead of human values. We hurry to rescue the suffering dollar much more enthusiastically than we hurry to rescue suffering men and women—and children. A sick gorilla can seem a more pathetic sight, a more "deserving case," than any number of sick and hungry human beings.

HOW TO OBTAIN BETTER FARM PRICES—

There is meat for farmers in all parts of the country in an address recently made by Shirley W. Wynne, Commissioner of Health of New York City.

Competition among dairymen and dairymen's organizations, he said, tends to reduce the price received for milk by producers. "If I were asked how dairy farmers can obtain better prices for their milk," he continued, "I would say stop unfair competition, control your surplus, prevent its use in demoralizing markets, and give every possible aid to our campaign for increased consumption."

In other words, the dairymen must be organized. And that goes for all farmers, no matter what commodity they have to offer. General poor business conditions have of course been partly responsible for low farm prices—but lack of cooperation among farmers themselves has unquestionably done as much or more to knock prices down and keep them down.

On the day the last "independent" farmer joins a sound co-operative, agriculture will have real and permanent prosperity. And in the meantime, all farmers owe it to themselves and their calling to do everything possible to back up their cooperatives, not only through their own loyal support, but in bringing unorganized farmers into the fold. We live in a fast-moving, highly competitive world, and cooperation is perhaps even more essential to agriculture than to industry at large.

BRAINERD WINS REGIONAL DECLAM MEET

CROSBY-IRONTON COMES THROUGH TO WIN DISTRICT BASKETBALL TOURNEY

EKE OUT CLOSE WINS OVER WADENA, LITTLE FALLS AND STAPLES

In the opening game of the '32 basketball tourney, Crosby-Ironton met Wadena with the result that the Rangers extracted a hard fought-for victory to the tune of 21-18.

The winners entered the game as the favorites but had their hands full with the much improved squad. Perpich, star C-I center, was playing "off form" and found the hoop for very few points.

The Wadena coach and team both deserve much credit for the chase they gave the superior squad. The attendance was not large due to the fact that the game was in the afternoon.

The Wadena squad was much lighter than the miners as well as shorter and the little fellows found difficulty in getting the ball off the board.

Beginning the evening games, New York Mills suffered defeat at the hands of a greater Little Falls squad. The runner-up of the class "B" tournament proved to be a much stronger team than expected. They displayed some fine individual playing but the team lacked the polish of its victors.

They made an excellent comeback in the second half, only to find the more experienced Little Falls fellows steadily holding the lead.

This team deserves much credit for its valiant struggle and sportsmanship. The fellows played fine basketball but were handicapped by the large floor.

Staples 32; Verndale 7.

This game proved quite uninteresting and one sided, as the score indicates. The Staples team had much too strong a defense for the handicapped Verndale squad.

The more experienced fellows started the tussle with a mad spurt of playing which brought them an edge which they were able to retain throughout the tilt. Staples ended up the half with a safe margin, 19-3.

The Verndale boys could not resist the powerful opposing offense, but put up a game fight. They seemed to lack that game polish that the New York Mills team lacked, but had beaten the latter in the class "B" tourney.

Brainerd 22; Aitkin 14.

To top off the evening, Coach Damann's Warriors took the Aitkin squad into camp by the score of 22-14.

The home fellows started the game with a mad rush which brought them three baskets in practically one minute. From that time on, however, the invaders allowed the home aggregation only one field goal more than they themselves made.

The game was interesting throughout as it provided many thrills in long shots. The entire team played nice ball, but the weaker Aitkin defense proved a handicap.

The score at the end of each quarter indicates the play:

Brainerd.....9 16 18 22
Aitkin.....4 8 10 14

Friday night brought two memorable tussles, both of which were won by close scores. In the first Crosby-Ironton nosed out a strong Little Falls quint in a most exciting tussle.

C-I opened the scoring and easily held the lead during the first half, which ended with the score 17-9.

In the second chapter, the down-river fellows staged a brilliant comeback. They fought hard, and the nice work of their key man, Riddle, was a great factor in the showing they made.

Perpich was working better, but was still not at his prime. The team as a whole, however, clicked nicely. With this small margin the Woolco men opened up that mystifying stall game that has brought them so many victories.

Staples 19; Brainerd 17.

It was in this second fatal bout that the Warriors took their defeat, rendered by the threatening Staples fellows. The home basketballers took the lead early in the first quarter, only to see it slowly melt away before the driving offense of Haun's men.

The score tied at 17 at the end of the third quarter, both teams summoned all their powers for the final quarter. Both defenses proved so strong that no field goals were scored in this last period. The invaders, however, took advantage of the rough playing to score on two gift shots.

It may be said that this tussle was lost on free throws as the home fellows were given three of these gift shots, only to fail in all of them.

Crosby-Ironton 26; Staples 22.

The range aggregation found a good deal of trouble getting started, making only one free throw in the first three minutes, but once started, they piled up a good lead, ending the quarter 8-4.

They continued to make two field goals for every one the lighter fellows made through the entire next quarter, ending it 16-8.

The greatest trouble with the Staples squad seemed to be that they couldn't get the ball off the bank board for more than one shot, while the heavier and bigger miners found little trouble in taking two or three under basket shots.

The second half found the "westerners" fighting harder. Twice they had their opponents on the run, when they sank two long shots. The end of the third period found the count 20-17.

The last quarter needs little mention as to how the fellows were playing. They were fighting for the honor of representing this district at the regional tournament. The C-I stall game again proved the death dealing blow to a truly mighty Staples team.

Fate now has it that Crosby has won the district tournament four times and Brainerd three. So fans, look forward to a cage victory next year which will again put B. H. S. on a level with C-I.

GYM DECORATED FOR TOURNAMENT

MOTTOES ENCOURAGE SPIRIT; BAND AND OTHERS HAVE HONORARY BLEACHERS

Colors of the visiting teams were used as the foundation for the gym decorations during the tournament. Each post was covered with the colors and letter of the school designated to occupy the section adjacent to it. The north wall was decorated with American flags and signs such as "Sportsmanship," "Welcome," etc.

Crosby-Ironton, Little Falls and Aitkin were assigned the western section of the gym while New York Mills and Verndale shared the southern part. The eastern half was occupied by Wadena, Staples and Brainerd. A section on the east was given to the boards of education from the competing schools.

The temporary bleachers on the north side of the floor were devoted to coaches, eliminated teams and faculty representatives. Also a platform for the B. H. S. pep band was temporarily constructed.

After the game Saturday night the district supporters not only carried off the title as winners but were also possessors of the name signs tacked on the walls. Today as the decorations were being torn down the girls could be seen snatching bits of colored crepe paper for their "memory books."

Credit is due the gym teachers and classes for the decorations.

EXCHANGE

"Mummy and the Mumps" has been chosen as the Junior class play to be presented by students of the Mankato high.

In many high schools and colleges, semester grades will not be given the students unless they have paid their class dues.

Dr. Doermann, for fifty years active as pastor and professor in the Lutheran church, will be honored by the seminary department of St. Paul Lutheran College.

"The Mac Weekly," in the January 14, 1932 issue, announced in an editorial "A New Journalistic Venture," which is known as the "Annual Green Sheet."

The following week, on January 21, 1932, the first "Weekly" issued by the Freshmen made its appearance.

This year on February 18, 1932, for the thirteenth time in the history of Macalester the Freshmen issued an annual "Mac Weekly."

Miss Oerting to Coach "The Tailor Made Man"

Another annual all-school play will be given in about a month by Miss Oerting. The play entitled "The Tailor Made Man" by Harry James Smith has been produced successfully on the stage and screen and Miss Oerting has also directed the play previously.

The returns will be used for Vocational Guidance tests which will help determine the future life of some doubtful boy or girl.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE POSSIBILITY OF JUNIOR COLLEGE

Last Tuesday night the Washington P. T. A. held one of the most interesting meetings of the year. More people than usual attended.

The audience was favored with several selections from the Ladies' Choral Club which has taken part in many functions of the year.

Students of the Brainerd high school portrayed a few episodes in the life of George Washington and also showed the changes that have taken place in the world since the days of the "Father of Our Country."

Anna Cass and John Folson played the parts of Martha and George Washington. These two characters with a group of others displayed their dancing talent in a very prim and dainty minuet. A very beautiful drill was displayed by another group of girls in red, white and blue costumes. All of these characters sang a patriotic song.

Speeches of the evening were Mrs. C. D. McKay, Rev. A. C. Peterson, Dr. A. K. Cohen and Supt. W. C. Cobb.

The business meeting was very short as there was very little old or new business. The question of a Junior college was brought up and discussed to some length. A committee will be appointed to investigate the possibility.

SENIORS WRITE COLLEGE APTITUDE TEST FRIDAY

QUEER ANSWERS GIVEN TO WORD ASSOCIATION

Quite queer are some people's conception of the meaning and use of certain words. This fact was brought out by the college aptitude test when it was given to the members of the graduating class last Friday morning.

The test consisted mostly of vocabulary drill, one word being given and the student being required to pick a word of equivalent meaning from a list of five. Some of the most unique words and their meanings as picked are given below, the first word being the word and the second being the meaning:

Oligarchy, a church; garniture, a gem; palladium, roof of the mouth; stock broker, an auctioneer; usurpation, chastisement; assure, to renege; espionage, to perceive; poorhouse, penhouse; segregate, mutilate; spittoon, jardineer; agree, insect; calmness, agitation; comedian, tragedian; milch, spawny; householder, burglar; mallard, canary; ignoramus, heretic; trousseau, wedding cake; mermaid, fish monger; torrid, rigid; conscientious, scientific.

School Calendar

Wednesday, March 9—Brainionian meeting, Senior assembly, 3:20.

Monday, March 14—Tri-Hi at "Y" Boys' Glee Club.

Tuesday, March 15—Underwriters in the Junior assembly, 3:20.

FAVORITES WIN IN INTRA-MURAL TOURNEY FRIDAY

WOLVERINES, TOMMYS AND WISCONSIN WIN

Finals were established in Intra-Mural basketball Friday afternoon. The first game with the teams of the Animal League competing. The game was between the Wolverines and the Tigers with the final score ending 6-2 in favor of the Wolverines.

The next game was one of higher scoring ending with score 20-12 with the Tommy beating the Andys.

The next game proved the thriller—happening in the state league with two equally matched teams, playing a very interesting game because at the end of the first quarter it was 3-2 and at the end of the third quarter it was the same score, but in the final minute a guard, sunk an almost impossible shot by throwing over his shoulder at the basket. It went in making the score Wisconsin 4, Florida 3.

These games conclude the schedule and we hope that the same thing can be done next year because of the training it provides for those making the "Varsity" squad.

YE EDITOR

Today many a heart is sorrowful over the decorations on their six weeks' cards. These marks are our own efforts and show what we have accomplished in the past month and a half.

Tomorrow begins a new six weeks, there will be no basketball tournaments or big games to interrupt our studies. So by the next six weeks our marks should be all black which will save a great deal of red ink helping the depression to some extent.

C. E. D.

Tournament days are over and so all eyes are turned on Marion Newman who will represent Brainerd at the regional declamation meet Wednesday, at St. Cloud.

Very much credit is due Miss Clauson who has coached the Brainerd contestants on to the highest declamation honors ever attained by Brainerd students.

Hi-Y Plans for April Fools Day Party

Last Wednesday evening at the weekly meeting of the Hi-Y club, plans for April Fools day party were discussed and the president appointed a committee to arrange for it.

The club also voted to send two dollars to the Minnesota Y headquarters for the foreign missionary work. By doing this the club retains its standing with the state Hi-Y association. Next week will be a regular supper meeting.

ALUMNI

Helen Sheets '31 St. Cloud Teachers' College spent the week-end visiting with her parents.

Vina Gilmer '31, St. Cloud Teachers' College was home over the week-end visiting her parents.

Murel and Harry Goedderz of St. Cloud Teachers' College visited with their parents in Brainerd over the week-end.

Richard Ebert '30 of St. Cloud Teachers' College spent the week-end with his parents.

Denver, Colo. — Police caught Lee Fernandez after the theft of $150 worth of silverware from the shop of Mrs. Louise N. Tasher. They found a bag containing the silver in his room.

Lee explained that he was standing outside the shop when a burglar ran out and stuck the bag in his hands. Police didn't believe his story.

HIS ERROR

Los Angeles—A valuable tip to husbands: When your wife wears size "34" undies, don't come home with size "38" in your pocket. Peter F. Gray, Jr., happened to pull that blunder here and his wife, Mrs. Martha R. Gray, sued him for divorce. The judge granted her petition.

THE LAST STRAW

The road hog with the big powerful car was annoyed. For 20 minutes he had been trying to shake off the small car, but without success.

Finally, when the cars were traveling at a steady speed of 60 miles an hour, the small car drew alongside the large one.

"I say," yelled the driver of the small car, "Do you know anything about these cars. I can't get this one out of low gear."—Tit-Bits.

GLOBE TROTTERS RETURN HERE SATURDAY

Gophers Tie With Northwestern for Second Place

PLAY MERCHANTS IN GRUDGE BATTLE TO SETTLE SUPREMACY

AITKIN HI-Y AND BRAINERD HI-Y IN PRELIM; MAIN GAME AT 9:15 P. M.

Confident they can make good their boast that they are never defeated twice by the same opponents, the Harlem Globe Trotters will return to Brainerd next Saturday to play the Brainerd Merchants.

The Merchants billed the Trotters in a return game to satisfy the popular demand of fans here who believe that if Brainerd can play equally as good basketball as in their former encounter with the colored boys they can win.

Trick Shooting at Half
The Globe Trotters will give their trick shooting exhibition at the start of the game and between the halves and will settle down to fast, consistent basketball from the start of play.

The game will be preceded by a preliminary at 8:15 p. m. between the Aitkin Hi-Y and the Brainerd Hi-Y. The headline battle will begin at 9:15 p. m. to allow all people working in stores to attend.

Defeated Only Twice
Brainerd's team will be selected from the following: Schuetz, Foster, Gabiou, Swanson, Paine, Hautala, Marshall, Cochran, Fuller, Guin, Garvey, Fitzharris.

Only two teams hold the honor of defeating the Harlem team in Minnesota, the Brainerd Merchants and Princeton. The latter two teams met on the Brainerd floor after their victories and Brainerd romped away with an easy win.

SPECK HANSEN HITS MAPLES FOR 640 AS E. M. B. A. GRABS 3

DEFEATS BYES; PETERSONS WIN THREE OVER NORTHEAST QUINTET

Lead by "Speck" Hansen, who slaughtered the maples for a single count of 245 and a total of 640 pins, the E. M. B. A. annexed three games from the Bye Clothing quintet in the pin league at Van's alleys last night.

The Peterson Clothing won three from Northeast and stepped into fourth place in the league standing.

Tonight the Study Club will roll the Wm. Hoopers and Alderman-Maghan will line up against the Brainers.
